Dated this the 5th day of November, 2007

O R D E R

In this Revision filed under Section 397 read with Sec. 401 Cr.P.C. the petitioner who was the accused in C.C. No.2 of 1999 on the file of the J.F.C.M-II(Mobile), Kozhikode challenges the conviction entered and the sentence passed against him for an offence punishable under Sec. 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act').

2. I heard the learned counsel for the Revision Petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the Revision Petitioner re-iterated the contentions in support of the Revision. The courts below have concurrently held that the cheque in question was drawn by the petitioner in favour of the complainant on the drawee bank, that the cheque was validly presented to the bank, that it was dishonoured for reasons which fall under Section 138 of the Act, that the complainant made a demand for payment by a notice in time in accordance with clause (b) of the proviso to Section 138 of the Act and that the Revision Petitioner/accused failed to make the payment within 15 days of receipt of the statutory notice. Both the courts have considered and rejected the defence set up by the revision petitioner while entering the above finding. The said finding has been recorded on an appreciation of the oral and documentary evidence. I do not find any error, illegality or impropriety in the finding so recorded concurrently by the courts below. The conviction was thus rightly entered against the petitioner.

4. What now survives for consideration is the question as to whether a proper sentence has been imposed on the Revision Petitioner. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am, however, inclined to modify the sentence in the light of the recent pronouncement by the Supreme Court that no default sentence can be imposed for an order for compensation under Section 357(3) Cr.P.C. The sentence imposed on the revision petitioner is set aside and instead he is sentenced to pay fine of Rs.1,20,000/-(Rupees one lakh and twenty thousand only) which shall be deposited within five months from today and on default to make the payment, he shall suffer simple imprisonment for three months. The fine amount shall be paid as compensation under Section 357(1) Cr.P.C. The revision petitioner/accused shall be released from custody forthwith unless his continued detention is found necessary in connection with any other case against him. His release shall however be subject to the payment of fine as ordered above.

This Revision is disposed of confirming the conviction but modifying the sentence as above.

ORDER

This is a petition to condone the delay of 374 days in filing the above revision. Even though notice on the petition was ordered, the 1st respondent/complainant could not be served so far. In view of the proposed disposal of the above revision notice to the 1st respondent/ complainant is dispensed with. Having regard to the averments in the affidavit in support of this petition, the delay of 374 days in filing the above revision is condoned.

Registry to number the revision today itself.

V. RAMKUMAR, JUDGE.
